Legal action

Generally, we cannot investigate a complaint if it is or was reasonable for you to take legal action to get an answer to it. This could include going to court or to a tribunal. We will look at whether legal action would be able to fully answer your complaint or give you what you want.

If you have already been to court or are thinking about taking legal action, please tell us about it here as it may affect whether we can investigate your complaint. Please phone us on 0345 015 4033 if you have any questions about this.

The details of your complaint

Briefly tell us what your complaint is about. Tell us what happened, when and who was involved.
Did the organisation miss any of the issues you raised in your complaint?  You may not be satisfied with their answers to your complaint but we need to know if their response missed anything you raised in your complaint to them.
Yes No
If yes, please tell us what points you raised in your complaint that their response failed to answer.

About your complaint (continued) Section 1 How have you, or the person you represent, been affected by what has happened? If we are able to take on your complaint, what are you hoping we can achieve?

We may recommend that organisations explain and apologise, change their procedure and, if appropriate, pay some compensation. Please use this space to explain what you want to happen as a result of your complaint. Note: if we do not think that we can achieve what you want, we will let you know.

Please attach a copy of the final decision letter from the organisation.
